In Case You Missed It ...

We thank the young companies, service providers, support organizations, journalists, and 1,000 attendees that made the 2014 Northeast Ohio Entrepreneur Expo an energetic, positive entrepreneurship celebration.

Special thanks to the event's sponsors: Charter One Foundation, Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses program in partnership with Cuyahoga Community College, Medical Mutual, Thompson Hine and Flashstarts. We also appreciate our media partner, Crain's Cleveland Business, and the 100+ speed advisors who volunteered to meet with entrepreneurs all afternoon.

If you missed the event (or just want to remember it fondly), here's your chance to take it all in:

► In addition, we'd like to congratulate the winners of two drawings held at the Expo: Neil Lutkin won four Indians tickets from Medical Mutual, while Joshua Feldman won a 23" Dell monitor from On Technology Partners.

Get Connected! Rolls On

After a successful Expo and the 2014 Female Entrepreneur Summit, the two-week series of entrepreneurship events continues with more great events, including:

Startup Weekend Cleveland

Friday, April 11-Sunday, April 13 – Downtown Cleveland

This 54-hour competition unites hackers, hipsters and hustlers in an entrepreneurial battle of creativity and business savvy. The event seeks to create connections, encourage big thinking and strengthen Northeast Ohio's startup community--giving anyone and everyone the opportunity to get a taste of the wonderfully chaotic world of entrepreneurship. NEOSA Tech Week

Friday, April 11-Friday, April 18 – Various locations

Launched by NEOSA in 2011, Tech Week is an annual initiative designed to celebrate, support and engage all facets of the local tech industry. Over the course of a dozen events—including a virtual job fair, NASA Space Apps Challenge, pitch night, TechPint, networking events and the NEOSA Best of Tech Awards—Tech Week provides the catalyst for connections among entrepreneurs, executives, educators and students.
